

Joyce H. Wise

Burston Award 1986

1977-1993 – DVS, Susquehanna Health

1991-2000 – Director of Community Relations and Marketing

Years as DVS: 23

Advice from Joyce:

Enjoy the diversity of the job. The changes in healthcare, new procedures, mergers, and consolidations, along with the variety of people, prepare you for the many changes that occur during your career.

What Did You Didn't Know About Joyce . . .

- She was born in Jamaica, New York and grew up in New Jersey and Ohio.
- She graduated from Marietta College in Marietta, Ohio.
- She has resided in Williamsport, Pennsylvania for the last 40 years.
- Her son, Victor II, finished a tour of duty in Iraq in April.
- She has three grandchildren.
- After her retirement, she spent one year with her husband, Vic as captain, and herself as crew to live on a 42' trawler and traveled the Intracoastal waterway for their dream journey.
- She currently lives in The Villages, Florida where Joyce has learned to play golf!
- She continues to volunteer for Friends of the Library and Operation Shoebox for the troops.

Joyce received the Burston award in 1986.